EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING. There will be a meeting of the Anderson County Democratic Executive Committe in the Intelligencer Office on Monday, the 3rd day of November next, (saleday,) at half-past nine o'clock a. m., for the purp" of attending to very important bu ... cas connected with the campaign. We have been unable to get an attendance of the Committee for some time past, and hope that no member will in the Post Office Department, and in stay away this time. The meeting is the Paymaster General's office. The called early in order to get through before Republicans have the Courts of the the public meeting that will be held at the Court House. In order that there may be no mistake about the membership of the Committee, the following named persons compose it: Anderson, No. 1, spirits in the Republican party. Not James M. The merchants and business men of Anderson will not open their stores on Tuesday, (he day of election. The cotton weighers will not be at the depot, and no business will be transacted in Anderson on that day. So do not come to town to trade, but follow the good example of the business men of Auderson and Belton, and devote the day to saving the State. Every farmer can spare one day as well as the merchant and mechanic, so let us have a grand Democratic picnic on next Tuesday, and let every man camp around the polls "from early morn till dowy eve."

Oct 30, 1884 style, that they will imperil their freedom if they fail to vote for Blaine. In some parts of the State, secret gatherings of the colored people take place every night, and the speakers fiercely exhort their hearers to be ready to fight for their rights.
The Democratic organization is not as

thorough as it should be, and the Demo cratic voters, it is feared, are not fully alive to the necessity of exerting them selves to the utmost to bring out the full Democratic vote. With the Republicans there is little or no need of organization, for the leaders rely on appeals to the ignorance and antipathies of their supporters. It is prudent, therefore, assume that the solid party strength of the political enemy will be arrayed Every debt of the State is promptly met against us. The danger which confronts us is falls due, and every department is presided over by competent and honest to meet it, and the only way, is by incessant political work from this time until the closing of the polls on election day. South Carolina may well prove to be the pivotal State in the present gigantic contest. If the Democrats carry the whole of the Southern States, together with New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, or if they lose New Jersey and Connecticut and carry, in their stead, the State of Indiana, Grover Cleveland will be the next President of the United the Asylum, which the Republicans left | States. But, if South Carolina be lost to the Democracy in this emergency, the Demorats must carry New Jersey or Connecticut in addition to Indiana, or must find in the Northwest, or among the Pacific States, nine electoral votes to take the place of those given to Blaine by reason of indifference or over confidence

Full instructions have already been given them, and it cannot be supposed that they are unmindful of the imperative need of arousing every Democratic voter to a sense of his political duty. The County Chairmen are now urged and instructed to communicate immediately with the Presidents of the Democratic Clubs and the heads of ubordinate or auxiliary organizations, in order that not a Democratic vote shall lost by inattention or want of care. It is not too late, even now, to visit every Democratic voter in every county, and ensure his attendance at the polls.
